LET THE SPIRIT OF LUTHULI SPEAK TO ALL

PRESS RELEASE

For attention: Khulu Makhaye

STARTS: About 60 people from Tongaat, Mandeni and Groutville turned up for the membership drive of the Luthuli Museum`s poetry club uHuru Poetry in Motion session on Saturday August 27.

Local poets of all ages and genders recited their poems across a diverse range of themes and kept the audience entertained for more than three hours.

Special guest was daughter-in-law of Chief Albert Luthuli and former KwaDukuza Municipality speaker Veli Luthuli. She gave the audience inspirational words of encouragement to continue to work hard and follow ones dreams.

All those attending registered to become part of the uHuru Poetry in Motion movement. Membership is free.

The club has a presence on the social media Facebook network. Should anyone want to join contact club president Xolani Banda on 073 212 4120 or send an email to uhurupoetryinmotion@gmail.com
