THE LUTHULI MUSEUM MOURNS THE DEATH OF MR IMPORTANT MKHIZE, CHAIRPERSON OF THE LUTHULI MUSEUM COUNCIL

The Luthuli Museum Council members and staff extend heartfelt condolences to the family, friends, associates, and relatives of the late Mr Important Mkhize who was the Chairperson of the Luthuli Museum Council. Mr Mkhize was appointed by the Former Sport, Arts and Culture Minister Nathi Mthethwa as Chairperson of the Luthuli Museum since September 2018 to date.

Since his appointment, Mr Mkhize has served diligently and with commitment in ensuring that the legacy of Chief Albert Luthuli remains prominent in people's lives and minds; his values and principles continued to guide the Luthuli Museum in its operations and service to the public. His passing is a sad loss to the Luthuli Museum and many who cherished his wisdom; integrity; honesty, sense of duty and dedication to sustaining a harmonious relationship for the achievement of a common goal. He leaves an indelible mark to all those who have had the opportunity to know and work with him during his lifetime.

Uwufezile owakhe umsebenzi. Kusele kithi manje!

Further information on his burial will be shared accordingly in due time once confirmed by the family. For inquiries, please contact the Luthuli Museum Marketing & Communications Manager, Ms. Valentia Mthembu on cell number 082 899 8819 or email address marketing@luthulimuseum.org.za
